Michael Hall School is a vibrant and inspiring place to work, where professional growth is nurtured, and students are at the heart of everything we do. Rooted in a strong sense of community, we are proud of our supportive and collaborative culture.

We are excited to invite applications for an enthusiastic and innovative Teacher of Photography to join our dynamic team. This is a fantastic opportunity to contribute to a rich and evolving curriculum within a subject that is highly valued and well-loved by our students.

You will plan and deliver engaging, student-centred lessons that cater to individual learning needs, supporting students in developing their skills, knowledge, and creativity. With a passion for Photography and a flair for inspiring young people, you will foster a love of learning and motivate students to reach their full potential. We warmly welcome applications from experienced teachers as well as those with a deep subject knowledge and a strong desire to teach. This role is a fantastic opportunity for imaginative, creative, and dedicated educators.

Successful candidates should have:

- Experience of teaching Photography with a recognised qualification is not essential though is preferred. The post may involve teaching of Photography at GCSE level and will include the teaching of the subject at A-level for the AQA Exam board. You may be required to undertake other teaching within the Steiner Waldorf curriculum.
- GCSE A*-C English and maths qualifications (or equivalent)
- The right to permanently live and work in the United Kingdom

Safeguarding Statement:

Michael Hall School values the diversity of its community and aims to have a workforce that reflects this. We, therefore, encourage applications from all sections of the community.

Michael Hall School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All positions are subject to an enhanced DBS check.
